

Mounted Archery Clinic

October 15/16 2016

East Calais, Vermont

802 456-1680 bryhyl@together.net

Learn:

- Bow and arrow handling and Mediterranean and Mongolian shooting techniques
- Unmounted and mounted exercises to develop and enhance your skills
- Training and desensitizing horses for mounted archery
- Equipment choices and resources

Cost $400. Stabling is available for your horse—self care. A limited number of trained horses are available to ride. Archery equipment provided

Some previous riding experience is necessary to participate. Clinic participants are encouraged to work at their own speed and level. The learning environment will be supportive and fun and beginner friendly.

Instructors:

Mary Murphy is a Level 2 Archery Instructor and founder of Mountainsong Expeditions. She is an experienced teacher of back country camping, wilderness survival skills, and ethical hunting. Murphy is a friendly, approachable, and inspiring teacher. <http://www.mountainsongexpeditions.com/>

Marcy Baer is a professional horse trainer, and riding coach with over 25 years experience. www.briarhillfarm.com

Anja Pjeffer has over 15 years experience teaching WonHwaDo martial art, "The Way of Circular Harmony". Anja is a professional teacher and an equine assisted facilitator